PROGRESS THROUGH THOUGHTFUL PLANNING

35th Annual Prairie Arts Festival

Fine Art & Fine Craft Exhibition and Sale

Presented by the Village of Schaumburg

The Village of Schaumburg collectively mourns over the recent passing of its longest-serving former mayor, Al Larson, who retired from office in 2019 after serving 44 years in public service, 32 of which were spent as mayor. Mayor Larson passed away March 19, 2024, at the age of 85.

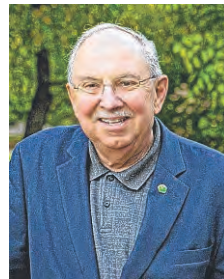

As Schaumburg's longest serving mayor, Larson led many signature development projects that significantly raised Schaumburg's profile locally and nationally, helped spur marked growth within the village and contributed to the village's overall quality of life.

A champion of local arts, Mayor Larson broadened cultural programming in Schaumburg by helping launch the annual Prairie Arts Festival, a renowned juried art fair held for more than 30 years on the grounds of the Robert O. Atcher Municipal Center and boasting more than 100 participating artisans each year.

He also initiated efforts to develop a theater workshop for young people that led to annual summer youth musicals, promoted development of the Schaumburg Youth Orchestra, and pushed for the establishment of a youth ballet troupe that led to the founding of the Schaumburg Dance Ensemble. In recognition of his achievements in the arts, the Prairie Center was renamed the Al Larson Prairie Center for the Arts in his honor in 2017.

In 2020, Larson donated $20,000 to the Prairie Center Arts Foundation to fund the Young Artist Assistance Program, a tuition assistance program created to provide opportunities for young musicians, singers and dancers.

Mayor Larson's passion for the arts, as well as his love for the Village of Schaumburg, will never be forgotten.

Former Mayor Al Larson

Schaumburg Park District Children's Art Activity Coordinator: Kari Larsen

Prairie Arts Festival Juror: Anita Ivy Miller

Anita Ivy Miller Professional Artist & Art Instructor

Anita Miller Gallery & Studio (Tours Available)

The Fine Arts Building, 410 S. Michigan Ave, Suite 827, Chicago, IL 60605-1308, 312-888-6090.

Anita always expresses stories in her art. Meeting life challenges and celebrating life's satisfactions are the subjects of her paintings. This year Anita exhibited her painting The Key Question Is at the In View Exhibition at the Art Center Highland Park. She has shown her work in Chicago as well as New York and California. Anita is teaching Painting Basics with Acrylic Paint at The Art Center Highland Park.

Prairie Arts Festival Judge: Diana Slaviero

Diana Slaviero Art Studio is based in Chicago at the Fine Arts Building. Diana is a lifelong artist with a passion for collage and mixed media. Her collage series, "The Nature of Reality," was a primary feature in the Vital Realms show at the Fine Arts Building Second Floor Gallery in 2023. Diana has a Ph.D. in Counseling Psychology and her workshop, "Creating Your Life Map," blends reflection with collage making.

Prairie Arts Festival Judge: Vicki Liszewski

Vicki Liszewski attended the University of Wisconsin at Madison as an art major with an area of emphasis in drawing and completed a B.S.E. in art at the University of Wisconsin at Whitewater. Her current mediums are watercolor and pastel. She has also done fiber arts, collage, woodworking and miniatures. Vicki is a member of the DuPage Art League, the Nature Artists Guild of the Morton Arboretum and the Chicago Pastel Painters. Her work has won awards at the Danada Nature Art Show, the DuPage Art League and been featured in the "Nature Artists Quarterly" of the Nature Artists Guild of the Morton Arboretum.

Prairie Plein Air Competition and Show Judge: Don Yang

After serving seven years in the U.S. Army as a medic, Don returned to his childhood dream of living as an artist by training at the American Academy of Art College in Chicago, where he earned a BFA with honors and later an MFA with emphasis on fine art and traditional illustration. Don has been teaching oil painting, drawing and artistic anatomy in and around Chicago for the past 26 years including at the Palette and Chisel Academy of Fine Arts and the American Academy of Art College where he is currently serving as chairperson of Fine Art Department and Foundations Department.

Welcome from the Village President

Dear Patron of the Arts:

Welcome to the Village of Schaumburg's 35th annual Prairie Arts Festival.

We attract artists from all over to come to our lovely municipal center grounds so that you can find the perfect birthday gift, wedding or anniversary present, housewarming gift or just something for someone you love. You may even want to bring home something for yourself.

This is a juried festival so you may notice ribbons being displayed by a number of artists indicating that they have been awarded prizes.

Stroll the grounds. Enjoy the swans (Louis and Serena) and if the timing is right, their cygnets. Listen to some music, visit a food truck and enjoy the day. And don't forget to tell your friends about what you saw. And what you bought.

Tom Dailly

Sincerely,

Tom Dailly

AL LARSON PRAIRIE CENTER FOR THE ARTS
201 Schaumburg Court, Schaumburg, IL 60193
847.895.3600 | prairiecenter.org

It's 1955, and into a square little town in a square little state rides a guitar-playing young man who changes everything and everyone he meets. Loosely based on Shakespeare's Twelfth Night, this hip-swiveling, lip-curling musical fantasy will have you jumpin' out of your blue suede shoes with classics including "Heartbreak Hotel," "Hound Dog," "Jailhouse Rock," and "Don't Be Cruel."

Featuring talented high school and college students, Schaumburg Summer Theatre's 34th annual production, ALL SHOOK UP, runs for two weekends only at the Al Larson Prairie Center for the Arts in Schaumburg.
